CASE NO. 21-mj-2170-TJSFILED UNDER SEAL

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF CRIMINAL COMPLAINT AND ARREST WARRANT

I, Brett D. Rowland, a Special Agent with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services - Office of Inspector General ("HHS-OIG"), being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

Introduction

1. I am an investigative and law enforcement officer within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 2510(7), that is, an officer of the United States who is empowered by law to conduct investigations of, and to make arrests for, offenses enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 2516. I have been employed as a Special Agent with HHS-OIG for approximately eleven years. Prior to my employment with HHS-OIG, I was employed as a Special Agent for the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Diplomatic Security ("DSS") for approximately four years. In the performance of my duties as a Special Agent for HHS-OIG and DSS, I have led, conducted, and participated in the protection of Cabinet-level Secretaries, Ambassadors, Foreign Dignitaries, and Heads of State, and conducted investigations pertaining to violations of federal laws involving threats to government officials, passport and visa fraud, and health care fraud.

2. I set forth below only those facts that I believe are necessary to establish probable cause. I have not, however, excluded any information known to me that would defeat a determination of probable cause. The information contained in this Affidavit is based on my personal knowledge, review of documents and other evidence, and conversations with other law enforcement officers and other individuals.

3. Based on the information below, I respectfully submit that there is probable cause to believe that THOMAS PATRICK CONNALLY, JR. (“CONNALLY”) committed violations of 18 U.S.C. § 115(b)(4) (Threats Against a Federal Official) and 18 U.S.C. § 875(c) (Interstate Communication Containing a Threat to Harm) from approximately December 28, 2020, to July 21, 2021.

Probable Cause

I. Introduction

4. In response to a growing number of threats directed against the current Director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (“NIAID”), Dr. Anthony Fauci, and in order to provide a safe and secure environment within which the United States’ response to the COVID-19 pandemic could be conducted, HHS-OIG began protective operations around Dr. Fauci in March 2020. Part of those protective operations involve the vetting of threats received by various means, including mail, voicemail, and emails. Some of these threats have been sent to Dr. Fauci at the NIAID. NIAID is a part of the National Institutes of Health (“NIH”), located in Bethesda, Maryland. Dr. Fauci also currently serves as the President of the United States’ Chief Medical Advisor.

III. CONNALLY's Control of naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com

13. Through the Swiss Confederation, ProtonMail provided registration details regarding naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com. The email account was registered on February 4, 2018.

14. Pursuant to legal process, agents discovered that naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com was linked, for verification purposes, to the creator of the similar Instagram username “Naturtheater Alhena.” Additionally, the Instagram account was created on May 14, 2020, from an Internet Protocol (“IP”) address that was associated since April 17, 2014, to a property rented by CONNALLY from April 16, 2020, through June 1, 2020, which includes the date when the “Naturtheater Alhena” Instagram account was created.

15. On April 27, 2020, CONNALLY executed an extension of his rental of the cabin, using the same IP address that was used to create the “Naturtheater Alhena” Instagram account. In the rental extension, CONNALLY listed his phone number ending in 1340 and a separate email account in his name at mail.com (the “Mail.com Account”).

16. Pursuant to a search warrant, law enforcement obtained emails from the Mail.com Account showing that CONNALLY had been consistently using this account since July 2014. CONNALLY used the Mail.com Account to communicate with naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com and two additional ProtonMail accounts in his name. One of the additional ProtonMail accounts (“CONNALLY ProtonMail Account”) was registered on January 31, 2018, four days before CONNALLY registered naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com. On February 28, 2018, CONNALLY sent an email from the Mail.com Account to another individual advising them that the CONNALLY ProtonMail Account was CONNALLY’s new account and that future communications should be directed to that account. Explaining why he switched to ProtonMail, CONNALLY highlighted that ProtonMail “[f]alls under Swiss privacy laws” and had “[f]ull end-to-end encryption.” A review of the Mail.com Account returns showed that CONNALLY communicated between his Mail.com Account and the CONNALLY ProtonMail Account or copied the CONNALLY ProtonMail Account on emails sent to other individuals.

17. On July 22, 2019, CONNALLY used the CONNALLY ProtonMail Account to email the Mail.com Account. The subject and body of the email contained the same text: “Naturtheater for logic and MainStage.” Logic Pro is an application for the production of music developed by Apple Inc. MainStage is also a music application developed by Apple Inc. for use in live performances. The Mail.com Account contained emails regarding Logic and MainStage.

For example, on March 10, 2020, CONNALLY used a Google account to send his Mail.com Account a link to a forum containing tips regarding how to use Logic. Similarly, on August 4, 2020, CONNALLY emailed himself using his Mail.com Account with the subject “stereo options.” The email contained what appeared to be notes from CONNALLY regarding audio hardware he was looking to purchase that would work with Logic and MainStage (referred to as “MS” in the email). Based on my training and experience, I know that individuals who use an online alias may use such an alias in multiple different contexts, including as a username when registering for online accounts or with other companies and in some cases as passwords for accounts. Based on the above, I believe that CONNALLY used “Naturtheater”—a variation on the email account used to send the threatening emails—to register for Logic and MainStage or to purchase these software applications.

18. On January 20, 2020, naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com sent an email to the Mail.com Account with the subject, “JOBS SHORT LIST.” The email contained twelve links to Indeed.com, which is a website for job listings. The links were for open technical writer positions with various companies. A review of the Mail.com Account revealed CONNALLY’s resume. On his resume, CONNALLY describes himself as an “Information Architect, Editor, Senior Technical Writer.” CONNALLY’s resume shows that he has been a technical writer since around 1996. A review of the Mail.com account shows approximately thirty-nine emails from Indeed.com, including that CONNALLY had an account with Indeed.com, that CONNALLY posted his resume on Indeed.com, and that CONNALLY applied for technical writer positions on Indeed.com. Additionally, at around the time when CONNALLY’s Mail.com Account received the list of jobs from the naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com account, on January 28, 2020, CONNALLY communicated with job headhunters regarding remote technical writer positions.

19. CONNALLY also emailed himself usernames and passwords for his accounts, including naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com. For example, on November 25, 2019, naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com sent an email to the Mail.com Account with the subject, “naturtheateralhena.” The body of the email contained what, based on my training and experience, appears to be a password. Subsequently, on June 4, 2020, CONNALLY’s Mail.com Account received an email from a ProtonMail account (“CONNALLY Second ProtonMail Account”) with the subject “addresses.” The body of the June 4, 2020, email contained what, based on my training and experience, appear to be a username and password. On the same day, CONNALLY’s Mail.com Account received a second email from the CONNALLY Second ProtonMail Account with the subject “addresses2.” The body of the email contained what, based on my training and experience, appear to be information related to a username and password.

20. Based on my training and experience working with Digital Investigators from HHS-OIG’s Digital Investigation Branch, I know that individuals who possess and operate multiple accounts, including email accounts, store details regarding their accounts in locations that are only accessible by the owner. This can include sending the usernames and passwords for the accounts to a personal email account. I believe that CONNALLY emailed himself the password for the naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com on November 25, 2019. Subsequently, on June 4, 2020, using the CONNALLY Second ProtonMail Account, CONNALLY emailed himself passwords for the ProtonMail accounts in his control, including the CONNALLY ProtonMail Account, the CONNALLY Second ProtonMail Account, and naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com. Based on the fact that all three accounts have similar passwords, and the other information above, I believe that CONNALLY controls the three accounts.

21. CONNALLY's correspondence using his Mail.com Account confirms that he sent the threatening emails to Dr. Fauci and other officials at NIH.

22. For example, using his Mail.com Account, on May 21, 2020, CONNALLY wrote to another individual discussing Dr. Fauci:

You mentioned that you can see by looking at his face that he's a man of God: It's interesting, looking at Anthony Fauci's face, how I see exactly the opposite. If you see a pic of him where he's looking straight into the camera - this guy looks like pure evil to me.
Fauci has a long history in medical fraud. There's a professor at Berkeley when I was there, [REDACTED] He's one of the leading molecular biologists in the world, and back in the 80s (and still today) he questioned the notion that AIDS is caused by HIV, which caused him endless persecution - they couldn't get him fired though because he's tenured. Well guess who propped up this notion of HIV-AIDS connection, and the BILLIONS in profit selling "anti-HIV" drugs: Anthony Fauci.

Notably, CONNALLY espoused views that Dr. Fauci was engaged in fraud regarding HIV and AIDS, which (as noted above) was one of the topics of the first email sent to Dr. Fauci from naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com on December 28, 2020.

23. Prior to this, on April 8, 2020, CONNALLY communicated with this same individual. CONNALLY referred to Dr. Fauci as a "fear-mongering douche" and forwarded an article regarding Bill Gates's involvement with the pandemic based on the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and the World Economic Forum partnering with the John Hopkins Center for Health Security to host a program entitled "Event 201." Subsequently, Gates was mentioned in the threatening emails on April 24, 2021, to Dr. Francis Collins, the current Director of the NIH, discussed above.

24. Finally, CONNALLY sent an email to an individual on June 17, 2021, regarding Kary Mullis, who invented the polymerase chain reaction (PCR) technique. Mullis (who passed away in August 2019) was mentioned in the emails to Dr. Fauci from naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com on December 28, 2020, and April 24, 2021, as described above.

Conclusion

25. Based on the foregoing facts, I respectfully submit that there is probable cause to believe that CONNALLY used the email account naturtheateralhena@protonmail.com to commit violations of 18 U.S.C. §§ 115(b)(4) and 875(c) from approximately December 28, 2020, to July 21, 2021.
